CORRECTIONS REPORT

The Corrections Committee continues to show up with increasing participation. We have added more volunteers to Meck County Jail, Anson County, Gaston and other facilities.

It is such a pleasure and a privilege to be a small part of this amazing aspect of Service work. We currently have 30 + volunteers going into 8 facilities.

Brown Creek Minimum Security Prison has six regular approved volunteers with at least one pending. The Anson County Women's Facility just got more women cleared to take meetings bringing us to six women (and one man) to cover a meeting that was really struggling to get approved AA members. Our volunteers at Mecklenburg County Correctional has increased, and currently all meetings are being covered regularly. We continue to have a strong presence at Gaston County, Dallas, Albemarle and Lincolnton facilities.

Our continued efforts to bring meetings to Union County has stalled for the time being. They state that they just don't have the facilities to accommodate AA. I am hopeful that new contacts there will result in AA meetings soon.

We are excited about our annual Corrections Service Fair! It will be October 10th at Hope Community Church on Rae Road in Charlotte from 4 to 7 pm. We will have a fantastic main speaker, a panel of three consisting of a long-term AA members working in Corrections for 20+ years, a past inmate, and a program specialist working with Mecklenburg County DOC. There topic will be "AA's impact on those incarcerated" and, of course tons of good food. We will provide fabulous chicken and, hopefully, all you good folks will bring even more!

Also, registration is underway for Freedom from Bondage. Corrections conference in Aberdeen March 12 -14th of 2027. You can go to the Area 51 web site to register. See you there!

Everyone I know involved going AA service work in the jails and prisons agrees that it is about the most rewarding way we have ever found to carry the message to the still suffering alcoholic.

Please join us the last Saturday of every month at 10:00 at Intergroup or online.

Thank you,
